Tour Itinerary

1. Starting at the Natooke shop located in the Wudaoying Hutong, you will be greeted by our friendly staff as you select the bike that is just right for you. We will also provide you with a lock and helmet to ensure that you remain comfortable and extremely enjoyable.

2. Upon leaving the shop you will cycle to the Drum and Bell Towers. Listen to your local guide as they share the history and local insights into the area.

3. Visit a local Hutong Museum which allows a true hands-on and unique experience into traditional Chinese lifestyle. This is such a unique experience that is offered throughout our bike tour. Drink some tea, listen to stories and immerse yourself into the local culture.

4. Cycling throughout the Houhai Lake area, you will be given the chance to stop along the canal and get that picture perfect shot. With a unique historical importance itself, this is a perfect opportunity to look around and explore the food, shops and scenery the area offers.

5. Back on the bike and you cycle throughout the Hutongs as you make your way to a local Hutong church. This is something that the locals love to do and is a rare activity that is experienced by most visitors.

6. The North Church or the Church of the Savior is a great spot to stop and take some pictures. With its unique architecture and fascinating history, this church represents a rare combination of both western and Chinese cultures.

7. Visiting the 1901 coffee shop just around the corner from the church, you will have the opportunity to enjoy a nice cold drink or delicious coffee. Taking a closer look around this building, you will see that this building is a representation of the local Hutong culture and has a strong relationship with the historical stories behind the church. This is the perfect place to relax and listen to the stories shared by your guide.

8. The last stop on our traditional Hutong tour is a local residence which is owned by one of Beijing’s top cricket fighters, Mr. Liu. Take a look around the home, listen to his stories and enjoy the atmosphere. This is an amazing experience and one that most tourists do not get to experience.

9. Cycle back to the shop, drop off the bikes and share your thoughts on the tour.
